Burglars, 11-15 Years Old, Caught With $1065

Money Taken from 2 Downtown Stores; Admit Other Thefts

A shot in the air resulted in the arrest of a 15-year-old boy in downtown Granite City Saturday night and in solving burglaries at two stores where loot totaled $1400 cash.

Two other boys, brothers, 15 and 11, eluded police temporarily by hiding under a stairway, but they were picked up at their home, and during questioning, the boys admitted at least a dozen other break-ins at downtown stores and businesses, homes, and the concession stands and rink facilities at Wilson Park, where there was considerable damage on April 19.

Saturday night, the boys used a bar they found in the alley to force the basement door of Schermer's X-L Hardware store, 1918 Delmar avenue, and used a set of the store's bolt cutters to break a chain locked around a large safe.

Taken from the safe was $850 to $700.

The boys then returned to the basement, knocked a hole in a partition and entered Schermer's Men's and Boys' store, 1910 Delmar avenue. There they found a cabinet containing money bags with $754.

Police Move

They were leaving the Schermer Hardware basement when police began moving in. The two brothers hid under stairs in a rear alleyway, while the other boy was spotted by Lt. Leo Padgett in the driveway between Reese Drug store and State Loan & Savings Association.

As the boy ran through Civic Park, Lt. Padgett fired a shot in the air. The boy stopped in front of Black's Bakery and was taken into custody at 10:15 p.m.

The brothers, 15 and 11, were taken into custody at their home. In their room, police found a box containing $791, and other currency was found under rear steps and in a shed.

Police found $173 tucked in the underwear of the boy caught at 20th street and Hackney avenue. In all, $1065 was recovered.

Ken Hight, a Carbondale senior from Columbus, Ga., speaking for the Ad Hoc Committee of Concerned Students at the SIU Carbondale campus stated that many students voting to keep the university closed did so out of fear.

Maratorium Today at SW Campus; Classes Scheduled Tuesday

By VALERIE EVENDEN

The Southern Illinois University board of trustees voted 4-to-1 Friday to suspend undergraduate classes at the SIU Carbondale campus for the remainder of the current term, which ends in mid-June.

The decision came after a seven-hour meeting of trustees at the SIU-Southwestern campus, including a five-hour executive session from which the public and press were excluded.

Underlining the seriousness of conditions at the strife-torn Carbondale campus, Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, in an unprecedented move, arrived unannounced prior to the start of the 9:30 a.m. meeting. It was the first time an Illinois governor has attended a meeting of the SIU board.

In response to a recommendation by SIU-SW Chancellor Dr. John S. Rendleman, trustees approved a request for suspension of regular classes at the SIU-Southwestern to permit the students and faculty to join in a day-long moratorium on war and racism. Appropriate convocations and programs are taking place today at the local campus, with the entire university participating.

Meeting Room Packed

At the meeting Friday in the International Room of the University Center, packed to capacity with reporters, faculty and representatives of student groups from Carbondale and Southwestern campuses, Lindell W. Surgis, SIU-SW board chairman, opened the meeting by welcoming Gov. Ogilvie, who had attended at the request of the board.

The chairman then announced that board members would retire to executive session. Accompanying the governor was Dr. James Holdeman, executive director of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Trustees adjourned to smaller quarters and emerged shortly before 2 p.m. Gov. Ogilvie met with the press and immediately departed for Springfield without returning to the open session, recovered at two o'clock.

During the initial 5-hour executive meeting, student representatives were heard. Mayor David Keene of Carbondale was among those invited into the closed session to furnish first-hand information about recent events at Carbondale.

Meanwhile, about 20 students demonstrated orderly in an upper classroom, excluded from the International Room due to space. A public address system was installed to allow those students to hear the proceedings.

Students Marshals

Students marshals, wearing white armbands, inscribed with the letter "M," maintained order, together with a large number of plain clothes security men. No uniformed officers were evident at any time during the lengthy meeting.

When the open session resumed at two o'clock, various dissenting groups were permitted to address the board to state their position.

Governor Says —

'Can't Keep Universities Open with Bayonets'

In a press conference at SIU-Southwestern campus Friday, Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie stated, "I do not think we can keep our universities open with bayonets." He was replying to a question about the withdrawal of National Guardsmen at the SIU-Carbondale campus.

He commented that use of the National Guard is of an emergency nature and these forces should be utilized sparingly and only under extraordinary situations. "A judgment will be made in each case when called on from the Guard or state police is sought, he pointed out.

The governor noted that a communication from him to Maj. Gen. Harold R. Patton, Illinois National Guard commander, stated that weapons are not to be chambered (loaded) nor ammunition carried on the person of a guardsman unless the situation is "extremely dangerous."

Such a situation must be determined by the senior officer in charge, he said. "This has not yet happened," the governor added. Gov. Ogilvie said attendance at Friday's board meeting was "very helpful to me" and accorded him his first chance to listen to various representatives and participants from the Carbondale campus.

He said the decision on re-opening the Carbondale campus rested solely with the SIU board and administrators. "I have tried hard not to make a recommendation in this respect," the governor said. "It is the board's responsibility to make the decision," he added.

"The disturbances are a very serious matter. This is not a problem of the Illinois University or an Illinois problem," the state official, concluded.

JC's Jr. Sports Jamboree Slated Saturday at GCHS

Entry forms are available this week at all Granite City schools for youngsters between the ages of ten and 15, who wish to compete in the District Junior Sports Jamboree 10 a.m. Saturday at the Granite City high school athletic field.

Cosponsored by the Granite City Jaycees and the Illinois Youth Commission, this Saturday's track and field meet is the initial step in a series of three contests.

Winners in district competition here will advance to the sectional meet next month in Alton, with sectional first-place winners competing in August in the state-wide Illinois Junior Sports Jamboree at Pekin, Ill.

Stan Brown of the local Jaycee organization, who is heading the district jamboree planning committee, said today prospective contestants may obtain entry blanks from physical education instructors and principals at all elementary, junior high and parochial schools in Granite City.

It was announced that Bill "Red" Schmitt, head coach of the Warrior wrestling team, will serve as head starter at Saturday's contest. Brown said that Miss Barbara Kerch, girls' physical education director in the local school system, is assisting the Jaycees in registering contestants.

Theme of the Jamboree is "Any Child Can Compete," the chairman said. He added that to qualify as a contestant an entrant needs only the desire to compete with others in his or her own age group.

Boys and girls are matched in separate divisions in three age categories—midgets, 10 and 11 years; Juniors, 12 and 13 years; and Intermediates, 14 and 15 years.

Brown stressed that all contestants must present an entry form, complete with a parent's signature, before competing Saturday. The entry form, available at the schools, should be signed by a parent or guardian and returned to meet officials before competition begins.

Events include long, broad and high jumps; baseball throw; 50, 75, 100 and 200-yard dashes; 220 and 440-yard relay races and 880-yard run.

More than 500 youngsters competed in the state finals held in Granite City last August, the second time a state meet has been sponsored by local Jaycees in the community.

grievances. Each was restricted to three minutes.

The atmosphere remained relatively calm as the audience responded with applause to the student speakers, including those advocating an end to racism on SIU-Southwestern campus and other supporting a decision to keep the Carbondale campus closed. Two speakers urged that the university campuses be kept open.

An attempt to continue regular business by the board signaled the first outbreak of open derision from the audience. Cries of "deal with the issues now," came from many of the students gathered in the room.

Dr. Delyte W. Morris, SIU president, again tried to continue the board's announced agenda, which was frequently and loudly interrupted by the student dissenters.

Explosion in Carbondale
One black student read a news service report of an explosion in an off-campus dwelling in Carbondale, which occurred at 10:15 a.m. Friday, in which three students were injured and a building was partially destroyed. The explosion occurred in the predominantly Negro section of Carbondale.

A few obscenities were hurled at board members, with one student yelling, "That's what is wrong now, you are going to continue this meeting when there are people dying down at Carbondale."

Told by the board chairman, "We stayed here to listen to what you had to say without interruption, we now have to finish the meeting," a more fringed eruption from the audience. "We have been here since nine o'clock today and all you want to talk about is a new building. If you don't finish with the issues, there may not be any students to put in a physical science building."

In an effort to restore some semblance of order, Trustee Harold Fletcher of Granite City addressed the students, noting "All have mixed emotions and are here for different purposes, but we hope to achieve a goal. We want to take the information you have given us today into executive session, and will have a positive statement for you very shortly on the Carbondale school."

Trustees quickly completed business items listed on the agenda and again adjourned for a closed meeting, lasting only 30 minutes.

Board's Resolution
The resolution adopted by the board, concerning cancellation of classes at Carbondale, was read at 4:15 p.m. Trustee Eugene T. Simonds of Carbondale cast the only dissenting vote.

"The Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University has met with the Governor, the President of the university, both chancellors, representatives of the faculty of both campuses, representatives of students of both campuses and a number of students who asked to be heard by the board. It has reviewed the past and current situation on the Carbondale campus and in the nation. It has carefully considered all of these matters and recommendations."

"The Board is deeply concerned with the educational opportunity available to students on the Carbondale campus and is seriously concerned with the imminent danger to life and property at that location. The MORATORIUM CONVOCATION. Dr. John S. Rendleman, chancellor of SIU-SW, asks the SIU Board of Trustees to approve a one-day convocation-moratorium on the SIU-SW campus today to discuss problems of racism and war. Trustees approved the request during Friday's emotionally-charged board meeting.

Board is very greatly disturbed by the current major disorders on this campus and their effect on the educational opportunity actually available at this time.

"It is therefore resolved that the classes on the Carbondale campus be suspended for the remainder of the present term except that specific students' instruction or areas of instruction may be continued in present or revised form with permission of the Chancellor or Dean of the Graduate School."

"The Chancellor and Dean of the Graduate School will determine and announce specific means of grading or giving credit to the end that students will not be prejudiced academically by the suspension of classes - possibly by giving a grade of satisfactory or unsatisfactory, giving credit for the hours and not counting the hours in calculation of grade point."

"The Board deplores violence, wars and racism not only on campus but also across the nation and world. It is concerned with doing all it can to restore an atmosphere of peace in the university and nation."

"To that end the Board will meet in about ten days. It invites the faculty sub-council of the Carbondale campus to meet with it when it reconvenes and to present specific recommendations to reestablish an effective academic atmosphere. The Board may invite others."

"The Board desires to remove force from the campus. This should be done by removing professionals whose only desire is disruption and who have no rights goals. The opposing unions include the iron workers, operating engineers, cement masons, laborers, teamsters and carpenters."

The freeze was instituted in July 1968 by the federal government which pointed to alleged discrimination in hiring of minority groups and excessive costs of highway construction in the Madison and St. Clair counties areas.

State Meet, Picnic Planned by K. of C.'s

Members of Tri-City Council 1098 of the Knights of Columbus planned to attend the annual state K. of C. convention Friday through Sunday at Springfield and heard plans for the annual family picnic set June 14 at the American Legion Freedom farm near Belleville during a meeting Thursday night.

Those wishing to attend the state convocation may contact Michael Schuler, Grand Knight, for reservations.

At the convention, the council will contribute $500 to Newman foundations at Illinois state universities. The fund was derived from the benefit "Saints vs. Sinners" basketball game held this spring.

Charles Parkinson Jr., chairman, also was made to participate in the Shrine parade to be held here on June 2. The council contributed $25 to the Shrine's publication on the parade and circus to follow.

It was reported that Patricia Roderick of St. Margaret Mary's school won third place in the Madison county K. of C. spelling bee held recently at Alton. She represented the council as the Quad-City parochial school champion.

Introduced were John Schubert, a member who transferred from a council in the Philippines, and Joseph Buscher, a member residing in Oak Park.

A luncheon was served after the meeting by John Korcos, lecturer, and Marion Mink, guard.

SODA Seeks Study Of Depot by GAO

Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, U.S. Army (Retired), executive vice-president of SODA Inc., announced today that he has received a letter from Congressman Melvin Price, a member of the House Armed Services committee, in which he advised Hoskin that he had requested the GAO (General Accounting Office) to make an investigation of the local Army Depot's closure.

Gilbert Novotny, president of the SODA Inc., a letter to Price said in reference to the GAO investigation, "After discussing this good news with members of our executive board, I have been asked to request that you, if you have not already done so, make a strong appeal to the Department of the Army to halt all actions connected with the Depot's closure until after the GAO investigation is completed and reviewed" by Congressman Price. Novotny further added that, "Activities at the Depot indicate that the phase-out is being expedited on a daily basis and, unless something is done, the Depot will be a skeleton before the investigation is completed."

Price Supports Five Flood Control Jobs

Support of five area flood control and navigation projects was expressed last week by U.S. Rep. Melvin Price before the House appropriations committee on public works.

Included were the Chain of Rocks navigation project, the interior flood control project, the Mississippi regulating works program and the Kaskaskia navigation project.

The interior flood control project is budgeted by the federal government for $350,000 for the 1971 fiscal year, and Price urged it be boosted to $700,000. He said the state is fully committed to the $16 million project which has a $10.2 million federal cost.

The Chain of Rocks budget recommends $750,000 for construction to improve the lock in the 1971 fiscal year. The $54 million project is budgeted at the Corps of Engineers' full capacity for the new fiscal year.

The budget asks $840,000 in construction funds for the Mississippi regulating works program to continue maintenance and operation of the navigation channel in the river between the Ohio and Missouri rivers. Price said the C. of E. has a capability of $3.5 million for the $7.9 million project for 1971.

Charged With Theft

Floyd Wallace, 24, of 2014 Edwardsville road, was arrested Thursday at East 20th street and Park avenue on a charge of theft of an auto owned by Robert Dunham, 2064 Dewey avenue, two days earlier. A preliminary hearing is to be set in Edwardsville and he was taken to the Madison County jail in lieu of $4000 bond.

ELECTRIFYING AUTOMOBILE. It looks like an ordinary economy-compact car from the outside but it runs on electrical power and produces not one gasp of carbon-monoxide exhaust fumes. Carl Mathias, local area service manager for Illinois Power Co., takes a look under the hood.

Electric Auto Brings Back Sound of Old Trolley Car

Illinois Power Co. staffers have been driving an electric powered car on Quad-Cities' streets.

The one-of-a-kind auto dubbed the "Kilowatt" looks like any "ordinary bright orange" colored compact car with a sign on the roof reading, "Here it is... the Electric Car."

Electric cars may be the economy transportation of the future. "Kilowatt" meets an apparent prerequisite for the future. Its motor produces none of the harmful exhausts that the gasoline combustion engine which has the ecology minded people in so much of an uproar.

If the possible future loss of the rumbling, gas-guzzling car appears disturbing a change to electric auto should comfort, at last to old fashion folk.

Riding in "Kilowatt," there is a strange resemblance to the old nickel trolley car ride. The auto, 24-volt electric motor is quieter but sounds very much like an accelerating street car. When the driver or motor

Youths May Apply Now For NYC Summer Jobs

Starting today, applications are being accepted for the Neighborhood Youth Corps summer job program for school youths who plan to return to their studies this fall. The federally-funded project will be operated for the fourth consecutive year in Granite City in conjunction with a summer vacation employment program sponsored by Mayor Donald Partney.

Applications are available at the Coordinated Youth Services office, 1250 Niedringhaus avenue. Youthful job seekers may call Mrs. Lillian Douglas at the CVS office, 676-2385, who will arrange an appointment to assist the student to complete the necessary application forms.

The in-school employment program will start at the end of the current year in mid-June. Those eligible for employment through the NYC project are youths 16 years of age or older, whose family income conforms to factors set forth in federal guidelines, the mayor explained.

A major portion of the program funds is furnished by the NYC through the U. S. Department of Labor. Additional funds were contributed in past years by the city council, the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, the Associated Retailers and the Downtown Granite City Shopping Center Association.

Last summer, about 80 boys and girls took part in the program, which assigns youthful workers to tasks in various city departments, under direct supervision of adult leaders, or on jobs in churches and youth service agencies.

A total of $27,040 was expended in salaries in 1969 to the student-participants who worked 26 hours each week for a ten-week period. Hourly salary this year is expected to be increased to $1.45, a 15-cent pay raise.

Mayor Partney stressed that none of the youngsters will handle jobs normally done by city crews. The added work is intended for the betterment of the entire community, he pointed out.

Among those hired last summer, 15 youths worked in the city's beautification program; seven in offices in the city hall; 12 youths at Granite City churches; six at St. Elizabeth Hospital; one each with the Granite City police department, tax assessor and local Army recruiter; two with the city printer; three at Coordinated Youth Services office; ten in the Granite City park district; three each at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA and city treatment plant; two at sary. To go in reverse, simply flip the on-off switch to reverse. The dash board doesn't have an array of oil pressure and water temperature gauges. Two dials indicate volts and amperage flow.

"Kilowatt" required a repair during its stay here, which may be a vote for the gasoline drinking buggy. An electrical terminal burned out which took an electrician to repair.

It isn't necessary to start and warm up the engine, just flip the switch and the unit ready to go. Only one gear is necessary.

Heart Association Plans New Program

A special planning meeting for presenting an educational program, tentatively scheduled for early October by the Madison County Heart Association, was conducted last week by Mrs. Mary Batson, newly-elected president of the association.

The meeting took place in the Madison county courthouse and was the first of several to plan the programs to be carried out on a county-wide basis.

Mrs. Batson also announced several new committees who will volunteer for the next campaign year. They are, Mrs. Rebecca State and Mrs. Lily Chaboude, fund-raising committee; Mrs. Dorothy Fink, education committee; and Mrs. Dorothy Nenniger and Mrs. Maxine Butler, public relations committee.

Undeclared Wars Test is Sought

The Business Executives Move for Vietnam Peace today urged fellow businessmen throughout Illinois to support passage by the state legislature of the Mann bill (HB-3523) to test the constitutionality of undeclared wars like those in Vietnam and Cambodia.

The bill is similar to that passed by the Massachusetts legislature and signed into law by the Republican governor of that state. It questions whether any Illinois citizen can be compelled to engage in a conflict that lacks a congressional declaration of war.

The executives' organization asked members to contact state representatives immediately by telephone or wire to urge that they vote the Mann bill to the floor and into law.

Trojans Place 2nd in Track Meet

Madison high school's Trojans won seven of the 15 events at the Midwestern conference track tournament to take second place behind field event strong Roxana Friday at Roxana.

A light drizzle fell intermittently throughout the meet but it didn't dampen the spirits of MHS students who used their Senior Skip Day to attend the meet.

Henry Rhoades furnished a pleasant surprise in the shot put. Weights events have been weak points for MHS for several seasons. Rhoades threw the lead ball for second place. Willie Acres was sixth in the shot.

Senior George Tyus and sophomore Edward Chandler, who so often during the season have found competition in the 100-yard dash only between themselves, again copped first and second.

They entered the Midwestern meet with each having won six competitive events. Tyus, Chandler won Friday to win the battle between the veteran and the upstart sophomore. Tyus, having qualified for the state finals this weekend, may have the last laugh.

In the 220 Tyus led Chandler to the string.

In order to have insight to probable team final placings as the meet progressed, Coach Charles Steptoe charged his expected individuals to finish in each event.

individual best marks, his expected team totals allowed Roxana a 74-71 favor.

Team totals in fact resulted as follows: Roxana 77 1/2, Madison 70, Triad 54, Bethalto 15, Highland 11 1/2, and Dupu 11.

Unexpectedly Vann Ford beat out Roxana's Bernies in the high hurdles. Ford's surprise came with a meet record clocking of 15.1. The old mark had stood since 1963. The event was a disappointment for Trojan Joe Willie Jenkins. He tripped on the third to the last row of hurdles to place sixth.

Ford and Jenkins were in uniform form for the low hurdles. Ford snapped the tape in 20.5 seconds with Jenkins taking second. Roxana's Larry Brennan State qualifier in the quarter placed third.

EARL says...

Crapie are really hitting good at Carlyle Lake, even the water is high. Go below the dam, stand on the bank and throw them Mighty Mite Bronco Jigs. Yellow is best, but sometimes they like white and purple, minnow gray, orange, etc. You really need a selection and since you must bottom jig, you're bound to lose a few. You can buy this fantastic crapie lure that will work anywhere crapie abound (sauger on the ole Mississippi like 'em too), at EARL'S Surplus Discount Store, only 15c each or $1.50 per dozen, mix your colors any way you like. Results guaranteed.

Went fly fishing last Wednesday afternoon. After the rain it was plenty muggy but I had a ball casting beautiful long casts all about my favorite farm pond. Man, I beat that surface red. Fed 'em all my best fly lures. Water sure was muddy. Gonna catch some "keepers" next time. THAT'S EARL, BROTHER.

Mercers, Bellemore Bow In Inter-City Contests

Mercer bowed in Wilson park to Collinsville 9-6, Bellemore Sporting Goods lost at East Alton 6-1 and Maryville's Red Sox blanked Highland 7-0.

Collinsville's Motormen scored two runs in the first inning, and Mercer tied the game in the fourth. Dave Sparks singled, stole second and went to third on an error. Harold Tankley sacrificed Sparks home. Rich Lynn and Larry Corey singled. Lynn stole home plate to tie the contest.

The lead went to Mercer in the eighth with six runs. With two outs Tankley singled leading the charge. Lynn knocked a two-RBI single.

Collinsville snatched a run in the seventh and tied the game in the eighth with six runs. John Corey, Bob Ketter, Tankley and Bob Finkey used singles in the final inning to add two more runs.

Mercer totaled 13 hits while Collinsville tallied only six but 10 walks for the Motormen made the difference. Each team left eight runners on base.

Terry Brown pitched the loss. He was relieved by Jim Becker in the eighth. Clyde Blankenship was the winning hurler.

Bellemore Sporting left 14 men on base but couldn't get the clutch hit. They loaded the bases in the second, fourth and eighth but capitalized for a run only in the eighth.

Larry Dillard crossed the plate for the lone run. He had walked, Charles Stephens singled and Steve Conway gained first on an error to load the bases. Howard Bolton walked, forcing in the run.

Conway was pitching toward a no-hitter until the sixth. East Alton scored three in the sixth, two in the seventh and one in the ninth. Conway allowed four hits, walked four and struck out one.

Jim Blackledge pitched the distance for East Alton and was in trouble all day giving up seven hits walking seven and fanning five.

The witness was Harlie M. Love of Granite City Steel Co., representing the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities and the Industrial Waste Council of the St. Louis Metropolitan area. He said that adoption of the state air quality standards prior to knowledge of federal standards was premature.

Tax Rebate Bill Passes House

A tax rebate bill for township governments has passed the House. It was announced Friday by the co-sponsor, Rep. Sam M. Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville).

The bill is designed to replace revenues lost through the exemptions of one household and one automobile and the homestead waiver of $1800 on personal property taxes, authorized last year by the state legislature.

At the November election this year, a constitutional amendment will be presented to the voters to prohibit the taxation of personal property by valuation as to individuals, Vadalabene said.

"Some observers feel new sources of revenue will have to be found. Others think that local governments and taxing districts should operate more efficiently and that if they were forced to do so, economies would result without serious loss of services."

"It has been estimated that $80 millions will be lost statewide to local governments and taxing bodies. This could seriously hamper the operation of park, library, hospital and sewer districts. This package would refund one-twenty-fourth of a local district's income tax payment to the state and would alleviate a potentially crisis situation."

The plan, Vadalabene explained, calls for the establishment of a special treasury fund, the property tax replacement fund. Income tax money would be transferred monthly into this fund and then distributed to the local taxing bodies—only those taxing districts not now receiving the one-twenty-fourth rebate existing to aid finances of counties, cities and other incorporated areas.

It is estimated the plan will provide $44 or $45 millions to local governments during 1970-71. "This will not replace the projected $80 millions loss, but it would help those districts not having anywhere else to recover their exemption losses," Vadalabene said.

He added that the bill faces rough going in the state Senate. "The difficulty," Vadalabene said, "is that the projected yield from the income tax has already been allocated to other areas or responsibilities in the governor's budget. Either these would have to be curtailed or most of the anticipated surplus of $84 millions be diverted to this one plan."

PHARMACY TOPICS

FROM PAUL SCHULER R.P.H.

Contrary to common belief, reactions to Poison Ivy, Oak or Sumac do not occur if one simply gets near the plant. The sap of the plant must come in contact with the skin. Even dead stems and roots can cause a reaction and smoke from the burning plants carry droplets of the sap.

Another misconception is that the discharge from the blister can spread the rash. This is not true. Usually the spreading is caused by not washing the area of contact or clothing that has come in contact with the soap. Therefore, to prevent spreading of Poison Ivy, Oak or Sumac adequate washing of the skin and washing of any clothing should be done.

For severe cases you should see your physician but to relieve less severe cases come to MIDTOWN PHARMACY for your summer vacation needs, whether it be Poison Ivy, Sunburn or Suntan Lotion, Band-aids, etc.

COUNCIL, MOST TAVERN OWNERS BACK SAME MAN

To the editor:
 Concerning the May 4 issue of the Press-Record, I would like to express my feelings on the article, "Madison Tavern Control Pledges."

Mr. Kistner has contacted the six aldermen who are for Mr. Sasyk. In a desperate move, they decided they had better come out with a proposal for the tavern hours.

As all of us in the city of Madison know, Mayor Kozielek has no interest in any tavern. For many a year no tavern license had been revoked or suspended until Mayor Kozielek came along and closed a tavern for four days. He turned right around, and on another charge, revoked the license indefinitely.

If he had some help on the city council, he would close the taverns any time a violation occurs.

As for the text the aldermen have proposed, I would say these aldermen have a right to sleep for quite some time, as this proposal should have been issued to the paper and the other five aldermen are trying to beat acting Mayor Kozielek by coming up with promises on things they should have done themselves.

They are right, Mayor Kozielek will aid his cause with the tavern closing hour issue because he will close them at a respectable time.

There is no doubt that Mr. Sasyk has most of the tavern owners behind him and, believe me, good church people are getting behind Mayor Kozielek, who is trying to give Madison's city government a good "spring house cleaning."

That should have been done years ago.
 I would like to end this comment by saying to the Madison aldermen that they are not consulting us good citizens who put them into that office in the first place. They will not get another chance to represent us in the future.

I would like to tell Mayor Kozielek to keep up the good, clean way of government he seems best for our city. We are tired of being led to the polls by promises.

WANTS WAR DECISIONS MADE BY NATIONAL VOTE

To the Editor:
 The lead editorial of May 7 issue of the Press-Record decrying the violence of campus protests stands in the last paragraph, "Reason must prevail over violence in the world, in the nation . . ."

It is not obvious that all the recent dissent—quietly and violently—stems from the actions of President Nixon, who is enlarging the war in Vietnam and Cambodia despite his campaign promises to "end the war with honor in Vietnam."

Some people feel the expenditure of 500 American young lives each year in Vietnam is justified. . . . The young people being sent, against their wishes, to commit acts of violence in Vietnam and Cambodia have a right to know by virtue of some kind of national referendum whether it is the will of the majority of people that they be sent out to make war.

Those persons bound by strong political ties to President Nixon may wish to follow his lead blindly in the Vietnam matter as the editorial seems to advise. The rest of us may not choose to do so.

We ask for some reasoning in the nation—it there be a national referendum on the question. If some method is not devised to test the will of the whole people, a dissent will become more violent and eventually, of course, a badlash of violence against dissent will be created.

One can see the thinking evolving already in the work of the editorial, "the four dead students probably were not dealt with fairly." Obviously the writer felt that as dissenters, they should be dealt with harshly but probably not killed quite dead.

What if it is found that a majority of the people in the United States are opposed to our continued presence in Vietnam and Cambodia? According to the editorial's logic, some measure of punishment should be meted out to those who are suppressing the will of the majority. Obviously, both situations are unjust. It would seem appropriate for this entire involvement to be put before the people or before the Congress in some fashion so that the will of the majority could be known.

It is patently unfair for our country to be engaged in a course of action involving a commitment in billions of dollars and thousands of young lives when the action may not be the will of the majority of the people.

We had better have some reasoning before it becomes too late.
 RICHARD ALLEN
 2828 Iowa Street
 (Editor's note: No punishment for dissent. No punishment for dissent. No punishment for dissent.)

(A fuller quote than the one given is that the students "probably are not dealt with fairly. Justice did not prevail. This is the very point that needs to be made and understood. Tammy is not an acceptable substitute for reasoned discussion.")

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR VIOLENCE ON CAMPUSES

To the Editor:
 Your editorial May 11 about campus unrest and it being a sorry day when they take down the flag was the best thing in that issue.

It is true that campuses are intended for instruction, not governmental decision-making.

I read your editorials at all times, and I am sure that the parents or even students that cause trouble would read them. I bet there would be some who would think twice before they did something else.

It is a sad country which we call our America where students break windows and try to burn buildings to the ground. I don't call that getting an education, no matter what they are trying to prove.

They have their rights to wear beads, to wear a uniform, to wear a uniform, but just so they won't have to leave and live a little bit of a hard life. Most of the students, have everything handed to them; not all of them, but the majority do.

I always say on these matters, "America, love it or leave it." I am going to leave this country and find out how they would have to live. I'll bet they would kiss the ground in America when they came back.

Another part of your editorial stated that an assistant sociology professor was destroying government property and hindering the Edwardsville Selective Service office. Those acts are going too far.

If he thinks he alone can do that, then what is he teaching the students?
 To me, it seems that on our college campuses, a great deal of Communism is playing a part.

Yes, we all want peace, but if fighting has to go on, isn't it better across the ocean than here in the United States?

Again, I must say your editorial is 100% correct and I just hope that the majority of students read it.

U. S. POLICIES 'NUTTY,' NO FACULTY MEMBERS

To the Editor:
 Your May 11 editorial refers to "nutty" SU faculty members and implies that a professor who demonstrated against the war belongs to the "left fringe."

(Editor's note: The phrase was applied to the inciting of violence, not to the demonstration.)
 "May Man Preval?" points out the following: "Just as there is a 'foie d'oeuf' there is inanity of mind and consensus in error does not transform error into truth."

"Later generations, years after the outbreak of mass insanity, the insane character of such thinking, even though it may be shared by almost everybody, may be clear."

"Thus, some of the more extreme people who are in the Black Death in the Middle Ages, the witch hunting at the time

Expanded Facilities, Services Proposed By Salvation Army Corps in Quad-Cities

The decision by the Salvation Army to construct a new building at 3521 Johnson road can only be seen as the Quad-Cities expanded facilities, since the existing center at 19th street and Grand avenue is to be continued as the site of welfare operations. The new single-floor structure is to be designated as the program services building.

With substantial funds already contributed, it has been possible to limit the capital fund to $150,000. Details of the undertaking are to be outlined to board members and citizens at the annual meeting of the local corps Thursday evening at Granite City high school.

The Salvation Army here and elsewhere has enjoyed unique employment with the public, which annually sends the local "tree of lights" holiday giving fund far over the top as well as backing the corps through the United Fund.

Similarly, enthusiastic support could assure the success of the building campaign.

Was the 'City Slicker' Trying to Kid You?

The Illinois Constitutional Convention did the proper thing in withdrawing its invitation to John W. Gardner, chairman of the Urban Coalition Action Council and former U.S. Health, Education and Welfare Secretary.

The convention delegates, already running behind schedule, were trying to draft adequate Constitutional wording affecting urban areas and sought Gardner's views as an authority in this field. But the "help" he was willing to give consisted of remarks devoted entirely to the Indiana way, an advance text released in Washington showed.

This state and its delegates were made to appear as villains by Gardner and were national commentators, who inferred that Illinoisians are "Indian givers." They did not point out that "Con Con" has a specific, limited, urgent mission.

Reform 'Broom' Sweeping Clean in Madison

We applaud the decision to end "lugging" of Madison city employees. It should have been long ago, because it is an unsavory practice. Workers had no choice but to pay up if they wanted to keep their job, even if they could not afford the political "contributions."

The abuse of public power about such "contributions" and expenditures created dangers of misuse.

Congratulations are due the acting mayor for ending the "Good Fellowship Club." We wish he and other long-time Madison officials also had fought it long ago, instead of waiting until the hotly-contested 1970 special election campaign to see its evils.

It is regrettable that abrupt Madison bridge closings, a county administrator's odd policies, and municipal lease decisions affecting landfill operations on bridge projects drew no commentary from the public. Such developments were occurring, just as in the case of lugs, what is wrong today was wrong in the past.

It may be inevitable that exposes follow rather than precede intransparency feuds. But we hope we will be excused for digesting them with a grain of salt.

My husband feels that our demonstrators' because when they have a job to do over it isn't for peace, then it's for war. He knows the situation. I don't.

President Nixon's decision on Cambodia took courage, in my opinion. Whether or not we agree with him, he is our elected leader and should stand for all peace-loving Americans and the fervent prayers of every citizen.

FAULTY SENATE 'DOVE' LOGIC ON SANCTUARIES

To the Editor:
 "It is our flag. Long may it wave!" This is our country, which only we who care can save.

President Nixon's decision, made with heart-rending agony, to attack the N. Vietnamese in the Cambodian sanctuaries was a decision fraught with danger.

He made the decision the only decision he had—because to ignore the sanctuaries would have decimated S. Vietnamese and American troops. I question the loyalty and sincerity of the phony "Peace

Illinois Committed to Developing Lake Park, Unspent Funds Should Be Appropriated Again

With $100,000 already expended on property title tracings and on planning, the Illinois Conservation Department is committed to development of Horseshoe Lake as a state park and expects that purchases will be well under way before the present fiscal year ends June 30.

This being the case, the General Assembly should not hesitate to reappropriate the unspent $1,900,000 of the $2 million allocated a year ago. In this way, the long-overdue conservation area, recreation site and wildlife refuge can be established in the near future, fulfilling Governor Ogilvie's pledge to make the lake park a reality.

State Right in Assuming Hillside Drainage Sponsorship; No Other Way It Can Be Done

John Guillou, Illinois Waterways Division chief engineer, is right in promising state sponsorship of federally aided Hillside Flood control in the Madison-St. Clair counties area.

Without state participation as the "local level" sponsor, the program would be absolutely no chance of being carried out. The East Side Levee and Sanitary District never did have the funds, geographical jurisdiction or administrative structure to undertake the project and it should be obvious to one and all by now that it is a "dead horse" as far as new responsibilities are concerned.

Although the $18,000 currently being appropriated at Springfield to acquire land for a Cahokia pumping station is a mere drop in the bucket, it is a harbinger of future funding of such larger proportions. Guillou reports that the stormwater control program in this region is to be phased in by the state as the present Kaskaskia River project is phased out.

Although even construction of the Cahokia pumping station is a major task of division, Army Corps of Engineers is aware of the state assurance and will update 1962 designs for the project program so that improvements can proceed without excessive further delay.

The revisions will take into account esthetics and the impact on wildlife, recreation and water purity as plans for the basic task of diverting hillside runoff during rain storms that does not inundate bottomland farms, homes and industries.

What other valid reasons and denials? They really offend the sense one had have gone by the board and it is time those who are paying for their hoodlums clamp the lid down hard and fast.

They yell, "Right of free speech." How they clutch at the parts of the Constitution they can hide behind while tearing down the rest.

They don't deserve to have the protection of the Bill of Rights.

These militants are doing the very thing they claim to be against—violence.

No one is more eager than I to see the war end, but all this demonstrating and rioting in our country won't stop the fighting in Southeast Asia.

This war has separated my family for the third time. My husband is a career soldier on his third tour in Vietnam. He didn't choose to go back but his occupation is in critical need, and when he was ordered back, he didn't refuse.

Our children and I need him and would give anything if he would come home. But it isn't that simple.

FED UP WITH COLLEGE STUDENT HOOLIGANISM
 To the Editor:
 I don't know about anyone else, but I've "had it" with the students in our so-called institutions of higher learning.

It's that time of year again. During spring, home owners are anxious to have repairs and improvements made on their properties and many fall prey to unscrupulous home improvement peddlers.

The gyp operators do shoddy work and use inferior materials. They often leave the work undone and cannot be located. This year, more contractors than ever may be looking for home-improvement business because of the slump in new home building. This could make it more difficult to detect the unscrupulous dealer.

The vast majority of home improvement contractors are perfectly reliable. But we recommend the following precautions for an efficient and safe contract for home improvements or repair work:

1. Ask relatives or friends to recommend contractors with whom they have had satisfactory experience.
2. Call the Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce to determine whether any complaints have been made against the contractor.
3. Ask the contractor for references, including names of customers who hired him for work similar to yours. Look at photographs of some jobs and, if possible, visit one or more of them to examine the work for yourself.
4. Check the contractor's business address to be sure he has an office and a stable in the community.
5. Make sure the contractor has complete public liability insurance to cover injury on the work site.
6. Obtain any necessary permits from the village or municipality before the contractor permit is required to build a garage, make an addition to the house, or alter or expand plumbing or electrical work.
7. Demand a written contract that includes detailed specifications of the work to be done, start date, price to be paid, materials to be used and the date of completion.
8. If the work is extensive, a substantial amount of money is involved, have the contract examined by an attorney. Also avoid using a contractor's form contract unless you have the fine print examined by a lawyer before you sign.
9. Make a down payment that is no larger than is necessary to get the contractor started. Generally, 5% to 10% is adequate.

Have the 'Chickens Come Home to Roost' at University Campuses?

By DR. JOHN A. HOWARD
 President, Rockford College

In the decade ahead it is likely that higher education will be facing a period of financial stringency.

The budgetary pinch which Congress and the state legislatures are experiencing gives us a glimpse of what we have at evidence of getting tighter even if the nation is relieved of a major portion of the expense of the Vietnam conflict.

Legislators are not only faced with the problem of finding enough money to keep education solvent, but are also under increasing pressure from taxpayers who are concerned about the turmoil on many campuses and who question whether funds should be allocated to colleges and universities which cannot maintain order.

Not only will funds from state and federal sources be difficult to obtain, but the tax reform bill recently passed by Congress will have some effect in reducing private gifts to colleges and other service agencies.

More serious little danger is that the institutions of higher learning are going to have to make tough choices of each dollar at their disposal.

It may well be that their policies will be more responsive to the needs of the community than they have been in recent years in order to earn maximum tax and gift subsidies.

One question which will certainly receive more attention in the next few years is whether the society and the educational institutions which serve it will continue to tolerate civil disobedience.

To a great extent, it is the academic community that has fostered the idea that the formal social machinery of public law, or college regulations, are not in accord with the deep convictions of the individual, then he may disregard the established limits and do as his conscience tells him.

It is this concept which directly supports the rapid increase in the use of marijuana and hard drugs, which has led to the breakdown of college discipline, and which accounts for the growth of overt revolutionary organizations on and off campus.

Withholding Can Be Avoided

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q I didn't claim any exemptions for myself last year and I still came up short when I filed my return. Is there anything I can do to have more taken out of my pay?

A Yes, you may ask your employer to withhold additional amounts from your paycheck. You should get a new withholding certificate, Form W-4, from your employer, fill it in and file it with him.

Q I have a refund coming and I just remembered a deduction I forgot to take. Should I put it in for it or should I wait until next year?

A You can make an adjustment in your 1969 return even though the refund on your original return has not arrived. To make this change, complete a Form 1040X and send it to your district director.

Q If you go overseas to work, do you still have to pay U. S. tax on your income?

A If you take a job with the U. S. government, your income will be fully taxable. Income earned in the private sector, however, may be tax free in whole or in part.

License of Starlight Club Taken by State

William Schooley, local lawyer, said today he is investigating the action last Saturday of an Illinois Liquor Control Commission agent who picked up the tavern license of the Starlight Club, 1225 Madison avenue, operated by Mrs. Maxine Coffett.

Schooley, attorney for Mrs. Coffett, said the license was picked up by the state agent upon a pending appeal in circuit court of a liquor commission ruling revoking the Starlight Club tavern license. The attorney said the law is specific in such cases "and I am of the opinion that a tavern may continue in operation while an appeal of a liquor commission ruling is pending."

The Starlight Club tavern license was revoked in early April by Ivan Maple, executive commissioner of the state liquor commission.

Venice Preparing Plans For Replacement of Homes

An educational program to pave the way for replacing substandard homes with modern, new homes is to be undertaken in Venice, it was announced during Friday night's city council session by Mayor John E. Lee.

The proposal was made after W.E. Griggs, building inspector, reported 40 old homes had been demolished, and permission had been given by six other owners of substandard houses for their demolition.

Mayor Lee said that once the project under the federal Housing and Urban Development agency is started, the education program for upkeep of new neighborhoods will be needed. "There's no use putting up a $17,000 home and then have old sheds falling against them," Dr. Lee said.

To Continue Razing
He told council members an outline of the program should be ready within a short time. Meanwhile, the street department will continue to raze the old buildings, including several city-owned buildings along Main street. A permit is being sought from the state Air Pollution Control board for an opening burning permit to destroy the old lumber, with burning site to be relocated from the vicinity of the dog pound to an isolated point of Kerr Island.

Mayor Lee said the city had been issued a warning by the state board because someone had dumped garbage at the dog pound site where the burning had been taking place. The city ordered no further burning, and the area is to be posted to prohibit dumping. Jack Tolliver of the City Plan

Commission was advised the new Zoning Commission members will be meeting with the plan commission on June 10 to review a proposed zoning ordinance for the city.

In other action, the council adopted a resolution to apply for $10,000 state and federal funds, to be matched with $3333 or, reported 40 old homes had been demolished, and permission had been given by six other owners of substandard houses for their demolition.

Rat Complaint
An ordinance was approved to place stop signs on Fillmore avenue at Sixth street, and arrangements are to be made for a street light to be placed in the alley between Douglas and Calhoun streets off Weaver street.

Referred to City Atty. Hartman was a complaint of rats at the old Carbide plant site. With permission of the owner, the street department will place rat poison in the abandoned plant site.

Mayor Lee reported he is working with county and state agencies to develop a program to provide summer jobs for Venice college students. He said he is ready to begin spraying for mosquitoes "as soon as the rains stop."

Bridge Manager Henry McMullen said repairs to expansion joints on McKinley bridge are being continued, and that the annual inspection of the bridge by engineers is scheduled May 23.
